On the 11th Inſtant his Catholick Majeſty review'd the Marqueſs de Risbourg's Company of the Walloon Foot-Guards, which made a very handſome Appearance, being compoſed of the talleſt Men in the Regiment, with which his Majeſty was well pleaſed. They write from Cadiz, that the Dutch Squadron, which was cruizing in the Mediterranean againſt the Algerines, had put into that Port; but that in a few Days it will ſet Sail for Holland, taking under its Convoy all the Dutch Merchant Ships that are there homeward bound. Letters from Lisbon mention, that the Abbot de Livry, the French Ambaſſadour at that Court, has not as yet had an Audience of his Portugueſe Majeſty, the Ceremonial not being ſettled. His Excellency Mr. Stanhope, the Britiſh Ambaſſadour, having received the King of Spain's Cedula for the South-Sea Company's annual Ship, will forthwith tranſmit the ſame to London.

The Return of his Sardinian Majeſty and the Court from the Veneria to Turin, is fixed for the 1ſt of December. Three Days ago part of the French Ambaſſadour's Baggage arrived here. On Sunday laſt the Count de Conſtanzana, Nephew to the Marqueſs de Prié, Governour of Flanders, was married to Mademoiſelle de St. Maurice, formerly Maid of Honour to Madame Royale, the Wedding was celebrated with great Splendour.
